

Andy Noyes

Guitarist, Singer and Songwriter

From Wisconsin's Lake Superior shore.

"When I die, I want to come back as Andy's steel guitar"
Sergio, House Concert guest, Reno, NV.

"His work brings out the emotions, the Heart"
Tom Draughon, Heartistry Music

"Andy's concert was a big success. My neighbors down here are still talking about it. There's even talk about 'when he comes next year...' I highly encourage others to 'Bring the Noyes' into your living room."
S. Hall, House Concert host,

www.bringthenoyes.com

Andy Noyes on facebook

@andynoyesmusic
instagram

Many musical and fulfilling life paths have led to Andy's full-time devotion to performing, writing and teaching guitar. These experiences include a career of over 30 years of live performance and recording in both solo acoustic and electric band settings.

Making music magic for dreamers, dancers and kids of all ages.

Andy's music is fused with influences that include fertile Delta and Piedmont Blues, Celtic dance rhythms, Caribbean and African grooves that affirm life itself. As a Singer/songwriter, the Bardic tradition has his heart as well.

If you enjoy the musical styles of Leo Kottke, Paul Simon, Michael Hedges, Bob Marley and a little Frank Zappa for dessert? Welcome to the fun!

Andy has just finished a year long national house concert tour called Tour de Friends.

Uniting friends and former strangers in evenings of music, laughter and community: 40 states, 58 shows and many miles of smiles so far.

Keep an eye on www.bringthenoyes.com for Shows, House Concert tour stops, Recordings, Videos and Bookings.